

ASHES TO FIRE: WITH JESUS ALONG THE ROAD

This Scripture passage has the threads of _____ and _____ throughout the story.

As the blind man walks away from the pool, clean, his eyes are _____ because of Jesus' act.

The _____ question the man about his identity and what has happened.

The _____ take the man to the _____ and he is questioned further.

The Pharisees now question the blind man's _____.

By the time they question the man again, the _____ are convinced that Jesus is a _____.

The blind man _____ Jesus and insists that God only listens to one who does His _____.

_____ questions the man who had been born blind one last time: about _____.

Jesus identifies himself as the Son of Man – the _____.

As the blind man had his eyes _____, the Pharisees had their eyes _____.

The Pharisees were _____ to their _____.

The blind man saw his need for a _____, but the Pharisees missed their _____.
They chose not see their own _____.
